DEATH OF ROBERT E. SCOTT. - We are pained to learn from the Washington correspondence of the New York Times that the Hon. Robert E Scott, of Fauquler county, Va, was killed last Saturday at Frank Smith's, near Greenwich's Fanquier county. A comple of Geary's or Block er's men, supposed to he deserters, having committed many depredations through the country, among other things violating a woman, Robert E. Scott, with Winter Paine and others, some ten or Smith's. On approaching the house Mr. Scott and his overser, Deleny, were shot dead by the deserters; the others ran, and Scott's double barrel gnu was aftetwerd broken over him hy the villains. The remeins of the mnrdered men were brought to Werrenton on Saturday. The desert ers esceped. One account states that Mr. Scott went to the United States Provost Marchal at Warrenton to have a detail of soldiars to arree! persons who were accompanying Mr. Scott to their place of rendezvous when he was shot. This event gives the deepest pain to the Administration, as Mr. Scott was one of the noblest of Virginia's sons, and was socking the return of his State to the Union, end It will be remembered that Mr. Lincoln tendered in bim a place in his cabinet before his ineuguretion.

A CONDENSED AIR LOCOMOTIVE - A correspondent writing from St. Petersburg eays, thet, on the 16th nlt., a new kind of locomotive was tried, with perfect success, on the Nicholai line. The motive power was condonsed air, and the trial trip wes mede to accertain the adaptability of the engine ln working the line. The inventor is named Baronowski, and the mechine consists of a framework, with a reservoir for condensed alr, and a number of tubes running above and helow lt. The trisl trin wes made with a carriage filled with passengers, and gave a very satisfectory result as regards speed, for the carriage was drawu at about twenty-four English miles an honr, and the inventor assorts that a greater speed cen be attsined, as his engine was huilt for | fire that can possibly be avoided. a screw steamship, and much power was lost by the Intervention of cog-wheels, which would not be necessery in a properly constructed engine.

Court of Impeschment" to try the case of Wost H. Hnmphreys, U. S. Judge of the Eastern Dis trict of Tennessee. The last Grand Inquest of the nation was summoned to impeach James II. Pock, and that was held just thirty-two years ago this month, i. e., in 1830. At that time the priccipal maneger on the part of the Honse was James Buchanan, and among those who served with him as manager was Mr. Wickliffe, now a Representative from Kentucky. The proceedlngs which usually attend these high courts of Impeachment are quite imposing, and the case soon to be brought will not be behind any of its predecessors-of which there have only been four elnce the foundation of the Government.

LATE FROM TEXAS .- Late advices from Texas etate that there is a strong and growing Union sentiment in that State, particularly in the western portion, and, since the death of McCnllongh, the Texane are becoming clamorons for peace on elmost any terms. Gen. Houston, it is eeid, le not a escassionist, but prndence compels him to keep the direct ald (£60,000 sterling per annum) quiet. All that the Union men want is the presence of a Federal force, when they will (penly avow their sentiments. If the wer continues until the first of July, starvation will force Texas to succomb to the old Government. A recrniting officer for the Confederates lately made a speech tn Northwestern Texens, and frankly told his andience that he helieved the Federals would take New Orleans and Memphis, and that they had the Davis will not be caught. A WARNING TO THE REPUBLICAN PARTY Professor Jeel Parker, a distinguished Repub. lican of Massachusetts, and the head of the Cambridge Law School, has addressed the following admonitory letter to the Editor of the Boston Journal:

To the Editor of the Boston Journal : warranted by the Constitution) the sconer it will hegin to provide for its own salvation.

Very truly yours, JOEL PARKER.

CAMBRINGE, May 5, 1862.

The admonition of Professor Parker is as pertinent as it is pithy. Moreover, if implies a very shrewd appreciation of the governing motive of the Republican party, which undonbtedly is "its own salvation," rather than devotion to the Constitution and the Union or to either. Professor Parker, speaking practieally, has touched the coro of the question. And it behooves the Republican leaders to take heed of his warning.

Among the sure consequences of disregarding it will be unquestionably the annihilation of the Republican party. Wo bolieve indeed that this event is sure ut any rate, but the attempt to carry out any of the projects so pruan attempt would infallibly bury the Republican party beneath the execrations of patriots, and heap upon its memory contempt mountain high. Nothing under heaven is more certain than this.

If the guilty attempt could be successful, it ol course would serve to overthrow the governernment permanently; but if could not be suceessful. So far as direct practical consequences are concerned, the attempt, if made, would be an abortion. A law embodying one of these "unconstitutional projects" could not be enforced. As a law it would be veid both in theory and in practice. It would be a dead letter on the statute-book. In flagitious vio lation of the Constitution, und opposed to the settled and universal sentiment of the people immediately affected, tho law as such would be an absolute nullity.

As an exhibition of sentiment, however, would distract and weaken the leval men of the South, strengthen the rebellion, prolong and embitfer the war, eheck the reviving pa triotism of the Sonthern masses, and render victory itself in a measure barren. And as the agent of these new and thronging calamities it would stand forth amidst the insuffera ble evils it was working to impeach and convict the party that enucted if. On this arraignment the popular verdiet of the North would be certainly prompt and overwhelming. Without the faintest shadow of doubt the Republican party would be annihilated.

REVISITING HOME .- Our good friend and most estimable fellow citizen, Capt. J. H. Shreeler, has left for New York, from which port he will embark on the 24 h, la the steamer Hensa, for Bremen. He gose to visit his fatherland after an absence of twenty five years, and as thoroughly Americanized as if he were to the manor born. We wish him a prosperons voyage and a pleasaet sejonrn in the land of his boyhood. He will find Bremen much changed, but it will not astonish him, for he has witnessed the almost megical rise of our Western citiee, and has seen Lonlsville grow from a pleasant county town to its present metropoliten pre-eminence. Farewell, Captain; "Farewell to the ontwerd bound."

The Presidency of the Jeffersonville and Indianapolis Roilread Company having passed into the hands of Mr. McCleod, the bridges and trestle-work of the road will undergo thorough repair at once. GEN. DUMONT AT THE LEBANON FIGHT.

Your correspondent "Kirkwood," in his com

unnication from Lebanon, giving an account o

paper of the 11th inst., commits several errors

which, in justice to the party a. at his present ed, it would be we'l enough to correct. He state that Brigadier General Dumont deshed into th

equare in his buggy, and was soon surrounder lantry in the midst of danger. The latter pert of will testify. But Brigadisr-General Dumont die

not ride into the streets of Lebanou in a buggy,

neither was he at any time ceptured, recaptured

or errested. The facts are there: The General had been in his saddle all Saturday night and all day Sunday, and whan he arrived at Murfroesboro wes naturally much fetiguad. At Morfress-boro a very respectable and wealthy plenter, by the rame of Pence, a resident of that place

kindly procured for the General a horse and bug gy, and himself accompanied the Ganeral

the buggy to within four miles of th

lown of Lebanon, st which point General

Dumont halted his forces until 4 o'cleck A. M.

when he again mounted his horse, rode in to the ha district, for many years occupying a high solition at the bar, with the confilence of the peo-ole; thora is no deubt of his election. For Dis-rict Attorney we have Mr. Lilly, of Fatill, Chas

Washington, May 10. The following proclamation was issued by the resident to-day:

WHEREAS, The public prints publish wha town of Lebennon and schieved his brilliant vic purports to be a proclamation of Major Gonera Hunter, and whereas, the same is producing some excitement and misunderstanding, therefore, I Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, proclaim and declare that the Government of the United States had no knowledge of belief of an intention on the part of Government. tory. Mr. Pence and General Damont's colored servant rode into the town in the buggy and were surrounded and fired upon, some fifty shot passing through the top of the buggy. Henter to the United States had no knowledge obelief of an intention on the part of Geoer. Hunter to iesue such a proclamatice, nor has yet any authentic information that the document is gennine, and further, that neither Genare Hunter, and any other, and the state of the state Your correspondent commits another error as to the number of troops under General Dumont's command. He had not at any one time over six Hunter nor any other commander or person hes been authorized by the Government of the United States to make proclamation declaring the claves of any State free, and tha hundred men. This, like the other error, was certainly unintentloral on the part of "Kirkwood," and its commission readily accounted for he approsed proclamation now in question, wheth r gamuine or false, is altogether void so far a espects such declaration. I further make known fie names several cavalry regiments as having been in the engagement, and no doubt was under the impression that they were entire regiments hat, whather it be competent for me as Com nander in-Chief of the army and navy, to declar he slaves or any State or States are, and wheth r at any time or in any case it shall have become necessity indispensible to the meintenance of which, is so, would have made his estimate correct whereas there were only a small detechment from the regiments mentioned in his letter. These are the facts, and so good and brave an officer as le Government to exercise such supposed pow re questions which, under my responsibility, esserve to myself, and which I cannot feel jas Brigadier General Dument should not, even unreserve to myself, and which a cannot real as a field in leaving to the decision of commanders in the field. These are totally different question from those of police regulations in armies and is camps. On the 6th day of March last, by a spe intentionally, be misrepresented. To the Editors of the Louisville Journal:

MOUNTAINS, Mey 13, 1862. al message, I recommended to Congress the The rebels are still in force at the Comberland Gap. Oar troops noder Gon. Morgan are at the Ford, f. urloen miles this side. I am not permitted to speak of our strength, but I will say this, that when Gen. Morgan moves he will pass through the gap, and on to Knoxville. The nonntaineers are true to the Union. They are "Resolved, That the United States onght t o-operate with any Stete which may adopt rainal abolishment of slavery, giving to ruc opposed to any compromise of peace, but require neconditional surrender. Not peace then with the leaders, they must stampede, or suffer the It would have rrying sin to gradual abolishment of slavery, giving to Fuch State, in its discretion, to compensate for the inconvenience, public and private, produced by such changa of system."

The resolution, io the language above quoted, was adopted by a lorge mejority in both branches of Congress, and now staeds un anthentic, definite, and solemn proposal of the nation to the States and peepls most interested in the subject matter. To the people of those States, now, I same stly speal—I do not argue—I beseech you to make the arguments for yourselves. You can leaven not to do so.

The coming election begins to excite some in terest. Be assured of one thing, we shall place none upon gnaid but known nuconditional Union men. Rumors from the Army in Virginia!

Judge Humphreys Impeached!

New York, May 19.

News from North Carolina states that Governor Clerk has refused to furnieh any more troops to Jeff Davis, and has recalled all the North Curolina soldlers now in the rebel army. North Carolina has held a convention of its cilizons and prononneed against giving further aid to the rebellion, than virtually returning to the Union. In reply to a demand of Jeff Davis for additional troops and means of transportation for his army to and through the Cotton States, Gov. Clarke aid Davis has received all the aid from North Carolina he could expact, and hareafter no more troops would be nermitted to leave the State, and has credered all North Carolina State troops home. Gov. Clarke also informed the rebels they could say be a proposal implicit confidence, both as a true man and accomplished sellier, and whom we had foudly hepsel should say us to victory and learned to reposa implicit confidence, both as a true man and accomplished sellier, and whom we had foudly hepsel should lead us to victory and learned to reposa implicit confidence, both as a true man and accomplished sellier, and whom we had foudly hepsel should lead us to victory and learned to reposa implicit confidence, both as a true man and accomplished sellier, and whom we had foudly hepsel should lead us to victory and learned to reposa implicit confidence, both as a true man and accomplished sellier, and whom we had foudly hepsel should lead us to victory and learned to reposa implicit confidence, both as a true man and accomplished sellier, and whom we had foudly hepsel should lead us to victory and learned to reposa implicit confidence, both as a true man and accomplished sellier, and whom we had foudly hepsel should lead us to victory and learned to reposa implicit confidence, but as a true man and accomplished sellier, and whom we had foudly hepsel should lead us to victory and learned to reposa implicit confidence.

Carolina he could expact, and hareafter no more troops would he nermitted to leave the State, and has ordered all North Carolina State troops home. Gov. Clarke also informed the rehels they could not be realized in retreating homeward, and that they would runt their own risk of heing loter copied by Union forces in any part of the State.

The Tribone hes the following:

We can positively assert that whetever modifications may be made in his order, Gen. Hunter will not be recalled nor put in a position necesisting his resignation. Fort Darling, whera cur gunboats were engaged, is eitnated on a blutt 200 feet above the river, high enough to direct a plunging firs upon attacking boats, which could not use their gens in response. A loyal black who left Richmond on Friday, brought the first news of a fight which wes at that time geing on at Richmond. The people were very apprehensive of the result.
